

Community Service Project

After school today, our middle schoolers participated in a parish-based service project. Armed with brooms, mops, cleaner and towels, they cleaned the church and the parish hall. They even came back to the school and continued their cleaning, sweeping classrooms and wiping down desks.

At the end of the day, some of them mentioned they enjoyed it so much that they want to do it again in the Spring.

We have amazing middle schoolers!

