

Our 7th graders were all assigned a different saint. Then they were given a doll and told to dress them in their clothing. These will be donated to the Pontifical Missionary Society.

Here are some of their works...

