

IC Student Gazette

Friday March 1, 2019

Victoria Sekenski, Head Writer

Upcoming Events

March 2nd, 2019: Read Across America Day! Join us in sharing our love for reading!

March 6th, 2019: Come join us for the Ash Wednesday prayer service at 9 A.M.

March 8th, 2019: Dress Down Day! Grades close!

March 9th, 2019: Parents: Join us for a night of fun and auctioning at Immaculate Conception School!

March 12th, 2019: African Arts in Education.

Answers from last trivia

1. University of Louisville
2. Stephen Hillenburg
3. Huntsman Spider
4. Hippopotamus
5. A temple in Cambodia

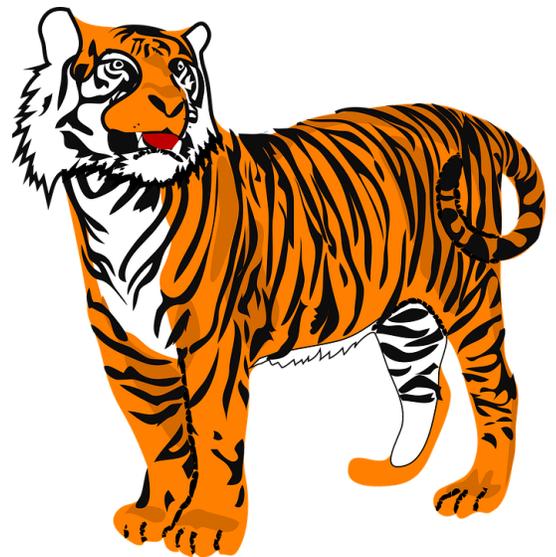

This paper's trivia

1. How many shades of blue are there?
2. What color attracts attention?
3. What color is associated with happiness?
4. What color is a snow leopard?

Sports

IC Basketball teams are on fire! The Boy's Varsity won their playoffs, and are now going to the State Championship game. Please come support them on March 9th at Malden Catholoc. Please join us tomorrow at Austin Prep in Reading for the Girls Junior Varsity at 10:15 A.M. and the Girls Varsity game at 12:45. Please support our teams!

Interview with a Coach

This paper's Interview:

Assistant Coach Michael Sekenski

1. Why did you choose to become a coach?

"I played basketball in high school and I wanted to help my daughter learn more about the sport."

2. What is your favorite sport and why?

"Basketball. We never won but always tried our hardest."

3. What is your favorite season and why?

"Fall because it is not too hot or cold. I enjoy the windy weather."

4. Which schools did you go to?

"St. Stanislaus for elementary, Chelsea High School, and Northwest for college."

5. What is your biggest pet peeve?

"People who have an inability to listen."

6. What is your favorite sports memory?

"Chelsea High vs. Cambridge Ridge and Latin High Championship Game. Patrick Ewing, who went on to play for the New York Knicks was on the other team. My favorite memory was going for a layup with no one around me, ready to shoot and suddenly, a huge hand came out of nowhere. It was Patrick Ewing, slapping the ball into the atmosphere."

Assistant Coach Michael Sekenski